THE LATE ELECTIONS

Republicans Make Sweep In the Blue Grass State.

TOM JOHNSON AGAIN WINS

Election in Greater New York Was Largely Favorable to Democrats. Landslide for Anti-Grafters in San Francisco, Calif.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—Augustus E. Willson, republican candidate for governor, and the entire republican state ticket have been elected by majorities ranging from 5,000 to 11,000, and the republicans have carried the city of Louisville for both state and city tickets, James F. Grinstead, republican, is elected mayor of Louisville by 4,683 majority.

The next Kentucky legislature will have a democratic majority on joint ballot, and presumably for Governor Beckham for United States senator, although there is already some talk of a bolt of some of the democrats to defeat him. These are the results of one of the warmest and what seems to have been the squarest elections Kentucky has had for years.

MAYOR TOM WINS.

For the Fourth Time Is Elected Mayor of Cleveland, Ohio.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson was re-elected for the fourth time as mayor of Cleveland in a hard-fought battle, in which the republican ticket was headed by Congressman Theodore E. Burton, the chairman of the house committee on rivers and harbors.

At midnight, Chairman Baker, of the republican committee, conceded the election of Johnson by 5,000 plurality. At the Johnson headquarters his majority is placed at a higher figure, and the election of the entire city democratic ticket is indicated by 3,000 or more.

The democrats elect a majority of the councilmen.

Congressman Burton made considerable gains over the vote of two years ago, when William H. Boyd was not sufficient to overcome the strong Johnson lead.

The official count of 130 of 244 precincts give Johnson, 23,900; Burton, 20,439. The present ratio, if maintained, will give Johnson a majority of over 8,000.

New York City Democratic.

New York, Nov. 7.—The election in Greater New York has been largely favorable to the democrats. New York county (Manhattan and the Bronx) went overwhelmingly their way, Thomas F. Foley for sheriff, the head of the ticket, having a plurality of 26,723 over M. F. Ihmsen, Independence league and republicans, in a comparatively light vote. The fusion between the republicans and the Independence league was a failure, except in the cases of a few minor officials. The republicans were victorious in the cities of Buffalo, Albany, Rochester, Syracuse, Oswego and Utica, the republicans electing a mayor in the latter for the first time in fourteen years. To off-set this, the democrats carried Newburgh for the first time in seventeen years. Elmira, Rome and Binghamton also elected democratic mayors.

Landslide for Anti-Grafters.

San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 7—The election in this city Tuesday proved a veritable landslide for the anti-grafters and returns from every precinct so far received, show that the good government ticket has been overwhelmingly elected from top to bottom. It is estimated that Mayor Taylor has been elected by a plurality of more than 11,000 votes.

Official Count to Decide.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—Indications after a close study of the incomplete returns of Tuesday's election are that it may take the official count to decide the result, so close is the vote for governor between J. Franklin Fort, republican, and Frank S. Katzenbach, democrat. The figures obtain able apparently favor Katzenbach, but his margin is only a few hundred votes. The legislature, according to the returns, will be republican. Another feature of the election in New Jersey is the defeat of Mayor Mark M. Fagan, of Jersey City, for re-election. His passing is of national interest because he has become known throughout the country for his antagonism to machine politicians. Fagan has thrice been mayor of Jersey City.

Result in Maryland.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—Incomplete but reliably indicative returns received on Wednesday morning show that the democrats have elected Judge Austin L. Crothers governor and the entire state ticket by an estimated plurality of about 7,000. The legislature appears to be safely democratic. Ex-Governor John Walter Smith defeated Governor Edwin W. Warfield and Congressman Talbot in the primaries for the long term United States senatorship beginnig in 1909. Senator William Pinckney Whyte was unopposed and will succeed himself for the short term. Senator Whyte was appointed at the death of the late Senator Gorman until the legislature should choose a successor.

Bryan's State Goes Republican.

Lincoln, Nev., Nov. 7. Returns received indicate that the republicans have carried the state by a majority of about 20,000. Rural precincts cast a heavy vote for Judge M. B. Reese, republican, for the supreme judgeship. C. B. Anderson and George Coupland, candidates for state university regents, have been elected by about 15,000 plurality.

Higgins Carries Rhode Island.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 7.—Governor James H. Higgins, democrat, was re-elected, and returns from all but one district in the state indicate that he will have a democratic lieutenant governor in office with him this year, with the rest of the state ticket remaining republican. The next general assembly will again be strongly republican, insuring the election of George Peabody Wetmore to the U. S. senate.

Massachusetts Republican.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 7.—The republicans won a sweeping victory in Tuesday's election, re-electing Governor Guild and all other state officers. The republicans will have their usual majority in both branches of the legislature. The state officers elected were: Governor, Curtis, Guild, Jr., of Boston; lieutenant governor, Eben S. Draper; secretary of state, William M. Olin; treasurer, Arthur D. Chapin; auditor, Henry E. Turner; attorney general, Dana Malone.

Anti-Mormons Win at Salt Lake.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 7.—Municipal candidates of the American (anti-Mormon) party will have the largest plurality ever given in this city. Bransford, for mayor, will have from 7,000 to 10,000 plurality over Plummer, republican, and Morris, democrat, whose strength is very evenly divided. The Americans will control the council. They have been in power for the past two years.

Democrats Carry Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 7. Practically without opposition the democratic ticket with E. F. Noel for governor, was elected in Mississippi. Although the vote was very light, the returns will not be complete for several days, as their compiling is merely for formal record.

Split on Liquor Question.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 7.—The victory in the license and the no-license fights, decided in this state, was about equally divided between the liquor forces and the anti-license party. The "dry" won two counties, Kent and Sussex, and the liquor party won Wilmington and rural Newcastle county. Kent county went "dry" by 1,500 majority, and Sussex went "dry" by a majority of 2,500.

Died at His Desk.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 7—W. W. Brarow, of Richmond, Va., expert accountant, and member of the Virginia Club, died while at his desk in the offices of the Seaboard Electric company Tuesday night, after an attack of apoplexy.

SHIP IS BLOWN UP

Boiler Explosion Occurs on a German Training Ship.

8 MEN KILLED, 21 INJURED

Vessel Was Near Murwick at the Time the Disaster Occurred—She Carried on Board Over Two Hundred Officers and Men.

Kiel, Nov. 7.—The boilers of the German school ship Blucher exploded Wednesday morning while the vessel was near Murwick.

Full details have not yet been received, but it is reported that eight men were killed and twenty-one more or less injured.

The Blucher is the German torpedo school ship. She was built at Kiel in 1877, and usually has on board about 250 officers and men. Her armament consists of several old 5.9-inch Krupp guns and some smaller quick-firing guns.

PRESIDENT IS WILLING.

Will Do Everything in His Power to Benefit Business.

New York, Nov. 7.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the executive committee of the U. S. Steel corporation, is quoted as saying regarding the visit which he and H. C. Frick made to Washington on Monday:

"The president is disposed to do everything in his power that is right and proper to benefit the business interests of the country."

Mr. Gary declared that he was not prepared to make any more detailed statement about tthe visit nor about the acquisition of the control of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company by the United States Steel corporation. He thought he would be ready to say more about these matters in a day or two.

COMER WILL STAND "PAT."

Fight Must Be Fought Out as Regards Railroad Legislation.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 7.—Frankness compels the prediction that the efforts of the commercial men of the state to prevent further railroad legislation at the special session that assembles Thursday will be of no avail.

Governor Comer has said that the pressure of a few men of business will not stand with him at the same time that the great body of the citizenship of the state does not join in the movement.

In other words, petitions from commercial clubs are taken to be from a few men, while the voters who put him in the office on a strenuous anti-railroad platform are legion, and he takes it that he is obligated by the size of the vote and the expression of the platform to work the problem out.

Bills Issued Years Ago.

Coffeyville, Kans., Nov. 7.—Two men giving their names as Thomas Dugan and Ed Yeason are under arrest here charged with passing bills issued many years ago by the Merchants and Planters' bank, of Savannah, Ga., and they are alleged to be worthless. The bank is stated to have redeemed its currency long ago. The men had quite a large quantity of the bills.

France Ships Gold to England.

Paris, Nov. 7—The Bank of France Tuesday made its first shipment of gold to the Bank of England to relieve the tension there caused by the American demands. In pursuance of the decision reached last week the bank of France, at the request of the Bank of England, purchased 2,000,000 pounds fine sterling bills remitting for them English sovereigns and American eagles.

Governor Odell Rallying.

Newburg, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Reports from the bedside of ex-Governor Odell were to the effect that he had rested comfortably during the night and was rallying from the shock of the operation which was performed on him for relief from pleurisy from which he has been suffering for three weeks.

FEDERAL JUDGES MAY CLASH.

Question of Authority In Alabama District Comes Up.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 7.—Developments of the past two days indicate that a clash between federal judges in Alabama is imminent.

Judge Thomas G. Jones exploded a bombshell in the federal building on Tuesday by suddenly appearing and opening court, although he has not been in Birmingham in several months. Judge Jones contends that as he was appointed judge of the northern and middle district of Alabama, Judge Oscar R. Hundley is simply an associate judge.

Judge Hundley, on the other hand, contends as he was appointed judge of the northern Alabama district, Judge Jones has no further authority in this end of the state.

The clash in authority was precipitated when Judge Hundley appointed Assistant District Attorney N. L. Steel referee in bankruptcy to succeed N. W. Tribble and Alex C. Birch, the latter being appointees of Judge Jones. Judge Hundley is at present holding court in Huntsville. Judge Jones, in a formal order issued Tuesday, removed Steel from office, which puts the issue squarely up to Hundley.

The law by which Judge Hundley's position was created is said to be somewhat ambiguous, and it may be necessary to have an interpretation by the supreme court before the matter is adjusted.

MORE PROHI TRIUMPHS.

Governor Comer Not to Oppose Statutory Prohibition.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 7.—Governor Comer stated to a party of friends in the lobby of the hotel on Tuesday night that he would not oppose statutory prohibition, rather that he would stand with the temperance people. This is regarded as removing the last impediment to statutory prohibition at the special session.

Prohibition continues to win all over the state. Three counties have voted overwhelmingly to put out liquor in the past three days, Tallapoosa, Shelby and Fayette. Nine others are arranging to hold elections, all of which, from expressions so far, will give the same heavy vote against liquor. These are Montgomery, Blount, Cullman, Walker, Limestone, Chambers, Bibb and Dallas. The petition for Montgomery was filed Monday with 1,731 names of a voting strength of less than 3,000.

With the vote so far taken, counting those which have been prohibition for sometime, forty-one Alabama counties are to be dry on the first day of January.

100th Anniversary of Telfair.

McRae, Ga., Nov. 7—The celebration of the 100th anniversary of the laying out of Telfair county, the county having been created in the year 1807, will begin Nov. 13 lasting three days. The whole county is taking an enthusiastic interest in the approaching occasion and everything points to an unusually happy time. The first day will be "Farmers' day" and addresses will be delivered by R. F. Duckworth, of the Georgia Farmers' union, and Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton association.

Gen. William Oates Ill.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 7.—General William C. Oates, long time congressman and one time governor of Alabama, a colonel in the confederate army and a brigadier for Uncle Sam in the late unpleasantness with Spain, is ill at his home in this city. He has been confined to his room with a very severe cold, which is now yielding to treatment.

AT THE PARK THEATER.

Another Large Audience Greet the Popular Company Last Night.

A packed house greeted the Park company again last night, and saw for the first time in our city, "Under Southern Skies," and it is needless to add that the large crowd went away more than pleased. They will be seen tonight in "The Girl I Left Behind Me." It is of the "Arizona" type of play, and deals with one of the historical Indian uprisings. Not one of the powder-and-smoke kind, yet contains enough of the sensational to give it a lively atmosphere. Refering to the climax of the third act, where the Indians are overpowered by the soldiers, reaching the post just in time to prevent a wholesale massacre, Mr. Park says it is the biggest thing ever attempted on his stage, both from a scenic as well as a dramatic standpoint.

Saturday afternoon the company will present the children's favorite, "The Poor Little Outcast," a story of East Side life in New York, in which a poor newsboy proves himself a real hero. Saturday night a departure will be made from anything yet produced by this popular organization—one of the most laughable of all farce comedies, "Charlie's Aunt." Imagine a man in female attire ready for an amatuer performance being persuaded into posing as his millionaire aunt who was to pay him a visit but at the last moment sends word she can't come! Having prepared an elaborate luncheon party for the aunt, her non-arrival places him in a predicament. He hits upon the idea of substituting the man in skirts. This done the party arrives. Everyone wants to make love with the millionaire aunt. The fun begins. Later on the real aunt arrives, unknown to any of the party. She discovers, by accident, the bogus aunt, and determines to remain incognito and see it out, when the fun doubles and continues one round of good hearty laughter throughout.

Some Fine Sugar Cane.

W. R. L. Howard, who owns and conducts a thrifty farm about eight miles west of Gainesville, was in the city Thursday, and brought a stalk of sugar cane containing nineteen joints, which is no doubt the banner product of not only this county, but this section of the State.

This sugar cane was raised on natural soil, being aided by no fertilizer, and is a fair sample of the growth of the crop. Mr. Howard holds the ribbon as the champion cane-grower of Central Florida, his products having been awarded first prize at the Florida State Fair in Tampa two years ago.

We tried different doctors and medicines and had given up all hopes that he would recover, but thanks to Vinol he is a well and healthy boy, and I want to recommend Vinol to every mother who has a weak or sickly child."

Our local druggist W. M. Johnson, says: "We want to say to every mother in Gainesville that our cod liver preparation, Vinol, will build your children up into strong, robust, healthy children. Michael, Alex Madison, Ben Rogers, Chas. Long, R. McKinney. It was proven that the party took another colored man out in the woods and gave him a first-class beating, and they had to pay for the fun.

A Prominent Road Man.

J. H. Wylie of Interlachen passed through the city Thursday en route to Jacksonville, where he goes in the interest of some road-building material in Putnam county, near his home, and from which the Palatka-Interlachen road is now being constructed.

Mr. Wylie states that this material, which is a mixture of clay and gravel of exactly the natural consistency, abounds in the vicinity of his home and throughout West Putnam in unlimited quantities, and that a test has proved it to be among the best road building material in the South. He is very enthusiastic and will present the matter before the County Commissioners of Alachua county within the next few days.

Mr. Wylie is one of the most enthusiastic good-roads advocates in this section of the State.

Always Was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup? Such a man exists. Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

JOLLY HUNTING PARTY.

Gainesville Trio Goes to Lafayette County in Search of Big Game.

About as jolly a trio as ever left Gainesville on a hunting trip were Dr. E. Lartigue, Dr. Gordon B. Tison and B. M. Tench, who "departed" Thursday morning for the Suwannee river valley and points in the Lafayette county hammocks where bear and deer are reported to be numerous.

The party went well equipped. They were conveyed in a big two-horse wagon, and were well equipped with camping paraphernalia and plenty of the good things which go to make a camping expedition a success. They expect to take their time en route and may not reach the Suwannee, a distance of about forty miles, within the next three or four days, as they will spend some time shooting along the way.

The party left Gainesville in high spirits, and with the anticipation of finding some big game in the Lafayette county hammocks.

THE NEWS FROM MELROSE.

Melrose, Nov. 7.—One of the International postage coupons was received here from England recently. They will prove very convenient to serve replies in correspondence with foreign countries.

Mrs. W. S. M. Caldwell has returned from her annual visit to Springfield, Mass.

C. Yearwood left Monday to enter the Atlanta Dental College.

Melrose Lodge No. 39, F. & A. M., resumed their monthly sessions on Saturday, after the usual summer recess. This lodge is in a very flourishing condition, and expects to add several new members shortly.

The tax books of the town for 1907 are now open at S. Coward's store.

It will no doubt be interesting to our citizens to hear that on November 2 a memorial chapel was dedicated to the memory of Dr. B. B. Tuttle at Ansonia, Conn. Dr. Tuttle was a regular winter visitor to Melrose for a number of years, and his memory is held in the kindest regards by his friends here. Judging from the photograph the chapel is a very beautiful building.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

District Convention Held With Hopewell Church in North Gainesville.

Editor Sun: Please allow us to report the work of the District Sunday School Convention, North Division of the Jerusalem Baptist Association, which met with the Hopewell church, North Gainesville, Friday, Nov. 1.

Rev. R. W. Lawrence, general superintendent of Sunday schools of said convention, presided throughout the sessions with credit to himself and the convention.

Mrs. Jennie E. Rowe, representative of the Mt. Carmel Sunday school, was elected secretary, and took record of all proceedings. Several Sunday schools reported by letter and delegate, which was very gratifying to the president.

The good people of Hopewell did all in their power to make our stay in their midst one of pleasure and comfort. They were a unit in their endeavors, which told from the start that success was ours.

Following were some of the Sunday schools that reported: Ft. Clarke, Hopewell, Mt. Carmel, Philadelphia, St. Luke, Mt. Moriah and others.

Notice of time and place of next meeting will be given later. We had an all-round grand success.

Yours for Christ,

R. W. LAWRENCE, Gen. Supt.

MRS. J. E. ROWE, Sec'y.

MAKES LIFE MISERABLE.

Troubles That Keep Half the Gainesville Doctors Busy.

Half of the prescriptions the Gainesville doctors write are for troubles that result directly from a weakened stomach. Strengthen the stomach muscles, increase the secretion of gastric juices, and you will find that common afflictions—indigestion, with its headaches, dizziness, depression of spirits, spots before the eyes, nervousness, sleeplessness and general debility—have been overcome.

From now on build up the strength and health of the stomach with Mi-o-na tablets. You will soon find yourself strong and never know the meaning of indigestion.

If Mi-o-na did not have an unusually curative effect in stomach disorders, it could not be sold on the guarantee given by J. W. McCollum & Co. to refund the money unless it does all that is claimed for it. They give an absolute, unqualified guarantee with every 50 cent box of Mi-o-na that the money will be refunded unless the medicine cures. They take the whole risk, and you certainly can afford to get Mi-o-na from them on this plan.

A Beaconsfield Story.

A lady who was his constant friend and benefactor begged Lord Beaconsfield to read Mallock's first book and say something encouraging about it. The prime minister replied, with a groan: "Ask me anything, dear lady, except this. I am an old man. Do not make me read your young friend's romances."

"Oh, but it would be a great accession to the Tory party, and a civil word from you would secure him forever."

"Oh, well, then, give me a pen and a sheet of paper." And sitting down in the lady's drawing room, he wrote: "Dear Mrs. ——, I am sorry that I cannot dine with you, but I am going down to Hughenden for a week. Would that my solitude could be peopled by the bright creations of Mr. Mallock's pen." Will that do for your young friend?"

As an expression of a book which one has not read it is perfect.

The Alternative.

At a fancy dress ball for children a policeman was stationed at the door and was instructed by the committee not to admit any adults. Shortly after the beginning of the ball a woman came running to the door and demanded admission.

"I'm sorry, ma'am," replied the policeman, "but I can't let any one in but children."

"But my child is dressed as a butterfly," explained the woman, "and she has forgotten her wings."

"No matter," replied the policeman, "orders is orders, so you'll have to let her go as a caterpillar."—London Answers.

Women Avoid Operations

MISS ROSE MOORE

When a woman suffering from female trouble is told that an operation is necessary, it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital, the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart.

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation has been decided upon as the only cure. The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who by taking made from native roots and herbs, have escaped serious operations, as evidenced by Miss Rose Moore's case, of 307 W. 26th St., N.Y. She writes:-

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I doctored and doctored with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it cured me of the terrible trouble and I am now in better health than I have been for many years."

This and other such cases should encourage every woman to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before she submits to an operation.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

SOUTHERN PROGRESS.

$10,000,000 To Be Expended In Electric Railway Systems in Alabama.

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 7.—The Georgia and Alabama Industrial Index says trat the beginning of the building of a great electric railway system in Alabama upon which approximately $10,000,000 will be expended is contemplated, and the definite projection of numerous industrial plants of varied character and uninterrupted construction in general lines will soon be commenced. With these as interesting and more important, exhibits its of activity and achievements within their borders during the week ending Tuesday, Georgia and Alabama are demonstrating most convincingly that their prosperity has a substantial foundation of real value and rich resources and that this prosperity has not been disturbed by financial conditions which have prevailed elsewhere. Upon such facts as these, upon the knowledge that vast amounts of capital are continually being invested in Georgia and Alabama and upon the multitudinous and indisputable evidences of an abiding prosperity, the people of the two states base an unshakable confidence in business conditions and the prospects for the immediate future.

Some of th farming tracts will be divided into small farms and sold that were purchased lately. Near the city of Bainbridge, Ga., an offer of $100,000 cash for 1,400 acres of tobacco land was refused. Two companies with total capital of $400,000 were organized in Decatur county, Georgia, to grow tobacco. A suburban tract was purchased at Florence, Ala., and will b edeveloped. A $30,000 realty and building company has been organized at Mobile, Ala.

Among industrial plants to be established are:

and Nen Eaifl going oingg aoinfw

Conecuh county, Alabama, has voted an issue of $100,000 of bonds for the improvement of public roads. At Headland, Ala. an election has been called upon a proposed bond issue for the construction of a waterworks system and an electric light plant. During the month elections will be held in a number of cities upon the issuance of municipal improvement bonds.

An Anniston, Ala., firm of manufacturers has been awarded contract to build cars for the Panama railroad.

Dr. Lingle, of Atlanta, Preached the Opening Sermon.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 7.—Dr. W. L. Lingle, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Atlanta, preached the opening sermon at the first session of the Presbyterian synod of Georgia in the First Presbyterian church here Tuesday evening.

Immediately after the sermon was preached the synod was organized, and the ministers prepared for the business of the sessions. There will be three sessions a day during the remainder of the week, and members of the visiting ministers will remain over to appear in the pulpits of the city Sunday.

THE PERFECT WAY

Scores of Florida Citizens Have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache, there is only one way to cure it.

The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys.

Neglect it, urinary troubles follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

S. B. Lemons, cigar maker, living at 1311 Ashlet street, Tampa, Fla., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and disorder of the kidneys. Two or three times on account of the pain in my back I was unable to work for several days. The secretions of the kidneys were in a very bad condition, dark in color, and if allowed to stand would become of the consistency of jelly. I tried various remedies, taking what seemed like gallons of medicine and I also put on plasters, but nothing helped me at all until I got Doan's Kidney Pills upon the advice of a friend of mine, and using them according to directions they cured me in a very short tim.

SHAFT BREAKS IN FALL.

Confederate Monument Meets With Accident at Decatur, Ga.

Decatur, Ga., Nov. 7.—A granite shaft, which was being erected Tuesday in memory of the confederate dead, was broken by a fall while workmen were engaged in hoisting it into place. The slipping of a rope caused the shaft to topple over, and the fall broke it in halves.

The shaft, which cost $2,500, was bought by the DeKalb County Confederate Memorial association, and the unveiling exercises were to have taken place on Nov. 9.

A new shaft will be secured, and the date for the unveiling exercises will be postponed until some day, probably in April.

The shaft was being raised by the Butler Marble company, of Marietta, and that company will make a new one free of cost.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50-cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease. J. W. McCollum & Co.

MANY SALOONS KNOCKED OUT.

First Test of the Illinois Local Option Law.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—At the first test of the new local option law made in Illinois counties not under township organization, sixteen counties voted for prohibition in various forms and degrees.

At Jacksonville, Ill., thirty-two saloons were voted out and at Duquin the temperance forces won by 26 votes. In the southern Illinois counties in the mining towns without exception went "dry."

Got Even With the Lawyer.

Many years ago there lived in Camden, Me., two neighbors, Dr. Huse and Judge Thayer. The doctor had occasion to sue a man and of course employed his neighbor, the judge, as his counsel. After a session of court he met the judge and asked about his case. The judge said it was continued. Meeting him again after another session and asking again about his case, the same answer was given.

As it cost $2 or $3 each time it was continued, the doctor thought by the time it was settled, after paying the judge, he would get nothing.

Some time afterward the judge was afflicted with a felon and of course employed his neighbor, the doctor. After suffering awhile he met the doctor and said: "Doctor, this thing is getting along very slowly. I have walked the floor nights for a week. What are you doing to it?"

The doctor, who stammered loudly replied, "Co-co-continuing it by George!"

SOME STATEMENTS REGARDING NEW THEORY

Followers of Cooper and His Novel Ideas Give Reason for Their Belief in Him.

With a theory that human health is dependent on the stomach and with a medicine which he says proves this theory, L. T. Cooper, a comparatively young man, has built up an immense following during the past year.

Cooper has visited most of the leading cities of the country, and in each city has aroused a storm of discussion about his beliefs and his medicines. Wherever he has gone, people have called upon him by tens of thousands, and his preparation has sold in immense quantities.

The sale of this medicine has now spread over the entire country, and is growing enormously each day. In view of this, the following statements from two of the great number of followers which he now has, are of general interest.

Mrs. Agnes Viggenhouser, of 942 St. Louis Avenue, Chicago, has the following to say on the subject of the Cooper preparations: "For more than ten years I was broken down in health. I could not sleep and I was very nervous. Gradually I began to lose my memory, until I could not remember things from one day to another. I had severe pains and cramps in my body, and I would at times see dark spots before my eyes. I was unable to do any work whatever, as my strength was failing. I had no appetite, nor could I take any medicine.

"I had about given up hope of ever being well again when I read of Mr. Cooper's remedies. I decided to give them a trial, and I began to feel better at once. After taking the medicine for two weeks I can say that I am a new woman. I can eat with enjoyment, the pains in my body have left me, and I am stronger than I have been for years.

"I cannot say enough for Mr. Cooper's remedies. They are wonderful, for they have done everything claimed for them in my case."

Another statement by Mr. W. B. Stewart, 109 W. Madison St., Chicago, is as follows: "I have had stomach trouble for years, and anyone who is afflicted this way knows what an awful distressed feeling it causes. Many a time I have felt that I would give almost any price to be cured. It was by accident that I heard of this man Cooper's remedies. I immediately made up my mind to buy a treatment of him. I used it for about two weeks and it is impossible to tell how much good it has done me. I feel altogether different. I have more life and energy than I have had for years. This medicine certainly does stimulate and strengthen the whole system. That feeling and weak condition of the stomach has entirely passed away. I feel well again."

We sell Cooper's celebrated medicines which have made this wonderful record in all parts of the country. —J. W. McCollum & Co.

As no one is immune, every person should remember that Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. J. W. McCollum & Co.

TIRED OF WHITE LIES

Trials of the Man Who Resolved to Turn Reformer.

TOLD THE TRUTH FOR A DAY.

His Experience Was a Sad One, as He Managed to Make an Enemy Every Time He Met a Former Friend—A Climax and a New Resolution.

After thinking it over for a long time this man decided that he would abjure all social cajolery.

He made up his mind to cut out all white lies and to give utterances to nothing but the truth.

He expected to have some difficulty in doing this. He well knew that the truth often had a harsh ring. But he made up his mind that he was going to lead his own life, and in the pursuit of that purpose he would let nothing but the naked truth escape his lips.

And so he put his purpose to stick to the undraped truth into operation one morning last summer. As he passed out of the flat vestibule on his way to the subway a man of his acquaintance in the apartment building greeted him pleasantly.

"Sumptuous morning, eh?" said the neighbor cheerily.

"I do not consider it a sumptuous morning," replied the truth teller. "I consider it too hot."

The flat neighbor looked somewhat chagrined over this brusque reply, but he made a new start.

"Somehow or another I always feel better in hot weather than I do when it's chilly," he said. "I even take on weight during the dog days. I guess, anyhow, I'm feeling particularly well, because I'm convalescent from that bad dose of typhoid fever. D'ye ever see a fellow come around more quickly after getting on his feet from typhoid than I have?"

"Yes," promptly replied the man, determined to tell the truth. "I do not think your recovery has been very rapid. I have seen typhoid patients pick up much more rapidly."

"Say, d'ye mean to say that I'm not looking bully for a fellow that's been through the siege I have?" inquired the flat neighbor, a trace of annoyance in his tone.

"In my opinion you look very poorly," replied the truth teller, with a stern determination not to be swerved.

"Huh! Got kind of a grouch on this morning, hey?" said the flat neighbor as he passed on down the steps.

On the subway train the truth teller caught a seat alongside another man of his acquaintance.

"Say, old man," began this acquaintance expansively, "did I tell you what that two-year-old kid o' mine said when I put on a pair of white duck trousers the other morning?"

"No, you did not," briefly replied the truth teller, with the air of somebody profoundly bored.

"Well," said the acquaintance, "he said—ha! ha! makes me laugh just to think of it! You've heard that young un of mine get off those funny things, haven't you? Just about the smartest chap for his years on earth, don't you think?"

"I do not think so," replied the truth teller out of hand. "I have heard many children of his age say the same sort of things, which their parents considered humorous, but in which I never was able to discern a particle of humor."

"Huh! What's that?" flared up the truth teller's acquaintance. "Say, you got out of your bunk on the wrong side this morning." And the acquaintance, sorely affronted, moved over to the opposite crosswise seat.

As he left the subway to make his office the truth teller met an elderly woman whose daughter is in Europe studying singing.

"Oh, how do do?" said the elderly woman effusively. "I've just had a letter from my dearest child, and she is getting on so famously with her singing. She's in Paris, you know. She'll be back in two years now, and what a furore she is bound to create on the concert stage, don't you think?"

"Well, I'd hardly venture to predict that," said the truth teller, with dogged resolution.

"Wha-wha-what?" fairly gasped the astonished mother of the dearest child. "Do you mean to say that"

"I grieve to be compelled to tell you that I really never found much delight in listening to the singing of the young lady, thoroughly appreciative as I am of her many amiable and engaging qualities," declared the truth teller.

"Why, you surely have been joking!" acridly snapped the elderly woman, and she gave her parasol a flourish and went her way in obvious dudgeon.

"Hello, there, old pal!" breezily exclaimed one of the truth teller's old time business acquaintances, dropping in upon him at his office during the forenoon. "Say, I just put on this suit of clothes at my tailor's. All the candy, hey?"

"I don't like it," promptly replied the man with the new determination.

"How's that?" inquired the old friend, visibly chapfallen. "Well, that's sure brief and right to the point. Don't like it, hey—just like that. Well, out with it then. What the dickens is the matter with the mess o' togs, according to your view?"

"I think the material of the suit is too loud and young for a man of your age," said the truth teller, sticking to his guns.

"Well, dang my eyes," broke out the old friend, his face crimsoning, "if that isn't a wallop! Say, d'ye mean to tell me that I'm going around trying to look young and gaydoggish and cut-uppish, hey?"

"That," replied the truth teller, "is the only impression one could derive from an examination of the suit of clothes you are wearing."

The old friend stared at the truth teller.

"Well, I'll tell you one thing, my friend," he said frigidly after a pause. "You need a rest and a change of some kind. There's something wrong with you, that's a cinch."

And thus about every fifteen minutes during the long day the truth teller made some new enemy.

On his way home that evening the truth teller had his pet corn accidentally stepped upon by a man hurrying to get a subway seat.

"You'll pardon me, I hope," said the man who inflicted the damage, turning about most politely.

"No, sir," firmly replied the truth teller. "I shall not pardon you. I do not feel in the least inclined to pardon you. I resent your clumsiness—resent it keenly. I should be expressing an untruth if I told you that I pardoned you."

"Why, you infernal pulp nut of a dried up curmudgeon, you," angrily said the man, grabbing the truth teller by the coat lapel and shaking him as a terrier shakes a rat till two of the coat buttons flew off, "what kind of a game o' talk d'ye think that is to hand out to a man that's trying to be civil and to do the right thing, hey?" And he shook the truth teller some more. "I've a great mind to take a swing at you just for luck, and I would for less than two cents if you didn't look like some blasted shriveled dyspeptic that didn't know any better talking to a white man like that!"

The truth teller left the subway at his station, shook himself together, and, the great white light beginning to shine upon and percolate through him, he made a new resolution.

"From now on," he mumbled to himself, "I'm going to outstrip them all in lying." New York Cor. Philadelphia North American.

Under the Rose.

Sub rosa means literally "under the rose." The phrase dates from 477 B. C., when Pausanias, the commander of the confederated fleet of Spartans and Athenians, was engaged in an intrigue with Xerxes to betray Greece to the Persian ruler and to obtain in marriage the hand of the monarch's daughter. The negotiations were carried on under a roof which was covered with roses and were matured literally "under the rose." Pausanias, however, was betrayed and to escape arrest fled to the temple of Minerva. The sanctity of this place forbidding intrusion for violence of any kind, the people walled up the edifice with stones and left the fugitive to die of starvation. His own mother laid the first stone. It afterward became a custom among the Athenians to wear a rose when they had confidential compliments to make, the flower implying strict secrecy. It was also customary among the ancient Germans on the occasions of festivity to suspend a rose above the table as a token that whatever was said during the feast should be kept secret among themselves. In 1526 a rose was placed over confessionals in Roman Catholic churches.

Animal History.

There are many points of likeness between a world view of animal history and that of human history. During the long ages preceding our own the continents in certain periods were like vast islands entirely isolated from neighboring continents by the seas. This was the condition of Africa in the period immediately preceding the present. Longer or shorter isolations of the most marvelous diversity of fauna and flora became each great land [illegible] separate breeding place under [illegible] conditions, and when [illegible] the land rose from the sea [illegible] enough to form [illegible] bridges, or [illegible] across the Mediterranean or along the Arctic seas or across the isthmus of Panama the animals gradually extended their ranges from continent to continent exactly after the manner of the prehistoric and historic races of men. Thus were initiated vast interchanges, struggles and conquests which have worked quite as profound influence upon the past and present history of animal life as the interchanges of human races have worked upon the history of man.—Henry Fairfield Osborn in Century.

THE ARCTIC REGION.

Where Smoke Rises From the Sea and Trees Burst From Cold.

Explorers who penetrate the Arctic and Antarctic seas have a chance to observe one of the strangest phenomena in nature, that of smoke rising from the sea. Wherever the temperature falls to 15 degrees below zero clouds of steaming vapor ascend from the water, to be immediately frozen into tiny particles of ice and dropped back into the water.

The same thing takes place on land, the steam rising from the snow and the bodies of the explorers themselves. In this case, however, the particles fall on the ground and make a sound rustling, like the swish of a silken dress.

At 40 degrees below zero the sap of trees is turned to ice, and the trunks burst asunder with a sharp report. These mysterious sounds and sights are awe inspiring to all who do not know their cause, and they may account for some of the strange tales that are told of the frozen north.

Natural light at sea is a much more common phenomenon. As the screw of a steamer churns the water under certain conditions you may see the waves glowing angrily where they have been disturbed. This is called phosphorescence and scientists are not agreed as to its cause.

WHISTLER AND MONEY.

The Eccentric Artist's Utter Lack of Business Instinct.

The Dundee Advertiser tells a story illustrating Whistler's forgetfulness and utter lack of business instinct. Being hard pressed for a debt and having finally been informed he would be sued unless a check for the amount was sent by return post, the artist mentioned the matter to one of his friends who lived near him. Explaining that he had a few pounds in the bank, the exact sum unknown, he requested his friend to stop at the bank on the way to business to ascertain what was required to make his account good for a check of slightly over £5 and to deposit that amount for him as a loan.

The friend was quite willing and in due time stood at the cashier's desk of Whistler's bank asking the amount of his balance and explaining the errand. The cashier was interested. He went to the big book of balances, turned over a few pages, wrote down some figures and in a moment placed them before the astonished friend. Whistler's balance was more than $30,000.

The artist was delighted, but found it difficult to remember when he had deposited so much money or where he had got it.

A Big Boiled Dinner.

Cooks in large hotels and boarding houses may think they get up meals on a big scale, but when it comes to wholesale cookery the little village of Ilfracombe on the London and Southwestern railway, England, surpasses them all. At a barbecue held there some years ago an ox was boiled, not roasted. Here and this is how it was done: A large hole was dug in the ground and lined with brick. Inside this a tank large enough to hold the ox was built. The carcass was then lowered into the tank, having first been placed in a cage formed by heavy crossbars, to which chains were attached. Pulleys on a scaffolding above were used to raise and lower the ox. Many vegetables, such as carrots, onions, cabbages and potatoes, were boiled with the meat. The boiling required seven hours.

Not Quite Clear.

A well known clergyman of Boston was talking to some friends with reference to the desirability of chronology in ideas in the form of statements, when he observed that there are times when this principle becomes a trifle too suggestive.

"For instance," said the speaker, "I once heard a minister in New Hampshire in his usual Sunday morning announcements as follows:

"'Funeral of the late and much respected Mr. Smith takes place on Wednesday at 3 o'clock.

"'Evening services will be held in the church on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.'"—Lippincott's.

Lights Out!

The sergeant, going his rounds of the barracks in order to see that all lights had been extinguished, noticed that a window was still lighted. He roused the occupant of the room. "Put out that light," he ordered, "and be quick about it!"

"Which light," explained a private, "and how do you want me to put it out?"—London Tit-Bits.

Locating His Home.

"Where outside of the city limits do you live?"

"Search me. I don't know. I don't. It's about fifteen minutes the other side of where the map stops."—Chicago Tribune.

WOULD HAVE DIED BUT FOR CUTICURA

Five Children Suffered With Fearful Skin Troubles—One Little Girl's Eyesight Was Endangered—A Grateful Woman Writes of

"Cuticura Remedies saved my two children. My little girl's face was so covered with sores that she could not see and I thought at one time that her eyesight was gone for good. After two doctors had failed to do her any good a friend asked me to try the Cuticura Remedies. I did so and in two or three days we could see a great change and in four weeks she was well and her face was smooth and had cured nicely. She had been sore for three months so that she could not rest night or day. My little boy was sore all over. His head was a solid scab. First we tried a doctor who did him no good, but the first time I bathed my son's head with Cuticura Soap and put Cuticura Ointment on it he rested better at night and the next morning his head was much better. In five weeks he was well. I cannot say enough for the Cuticura Remedies for if I had not used them my baby would have died. My little sister, Nora S——, had a terribly sore face. I told my mother of the Cuticura Remedies. She used them and the child's face soon got well after the best doctors had failed. Pearl B—— used Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills for sores on her body and face, and little Pinkey S—— had a sore head. Her mother used Cuticura Soap and Ointment on it and she was soon well. Mrs. Mary Hicks, Sutherland, Dinwiddie Co., Va., Apr. 15, 1907."

ECZEMA ON FACE

Cured by the Cuticura Remedies

"I had eczema in very bad form all over my face for the past four months. Physicians in several towns prescribed for it without giving me any results, but four weeks ago I commenced using the Cuticura Remedies, consisting of one cake of Cuticura Soap, one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and to-day I am perfectly well. Nettie Helgeson, Ridgeway, Iowa, Mar. 4, 1907."

Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.) (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60) to Purify the Blood, are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

A GAME IN EARNEST.

Courageous Acting Which Averted a Panic at Sea.

Captain John Theaker of the Earl of Eldon was homeward bound from Bombay with a load of cotton. A large number of passengers were on board.

About three days out the captain had good reason to believe that the cotton was smouldering. Any knowledge of such a catastrophe would cause a general panic. It was impossible to put back in the teeth of a northeast monsoon, so the commander quietly prepared for the inevitable.

The passengers, bored from lack of occupation, were amused and interested when Captain Theaker proposed to play at having a fire on board. He said that they would go through all maneuvers just as if a conflagration were taking place.

The passengers fell in with the suggestion gayly. The boats were got ready; provisions were put in, with water, sails and compasses. The seats in the various boats were allotted, and the passengers made up bundles of the valuables most considered the most precious. Thus, quietly, but quickly, the "joke" was carried out to the full.

When all was ready the captain calmly told the passengers that the game was in earnest and that the ship was really on fire, with the flames making toward the powder magazine. The boats were quickly got off, and in less than an hour the explosion occurred.

The boats were then many miles from land, but the weather remained fair, and in fourteen days every soul was landed in safety.—"The Still Life of the Middle Ranks."

An Honest Reply.

"Could you assist me, sir?" said the beggar to a well dressed looking citizen.

"I'm an ex-army man."

"Discouraged," inquired the citizen.

"Oh, no, sir," replied the man, gratefully. "Elated."—Lippincott's.

SIMPLE ARITHMETIC.

It Points an Easy Road to the Get-Rich-Quick Station.

Perhaps she read the statement made by the department of agriculture that the value of the eggs laid by the hens of the United States in a year would be enough to pay off the national debt or it may be she "just thought it up," but by way this pretty little Baltimore girl was convinced that she had everything all fixed. She has been engaged to a very nice young fellow for some time, but to most people the amount of his present salary would appear an insurmountable obstacle to matrimony. This was the view of her father, but when expressed she met it with a happy smile.

"Oh, I have thought that all out," she declared.

"You have, eh?" papa asked, knowing something of his daughter's business abilities.

"Yes, and it was so easy," she bubbled. "I was passing the market the other day, and I saw a dear little polka dotted hen for only 60 cents, and I bought her. I read in a poultry paper that a hen will raise twenty chicks in a season. Well, next year we'll have twenty-one hens, and so, of course, there'll be 420 chicks the next year, and $8,400 the next, and 168,000 the next, and 3,360,000 the next. And just see what that amounts to! Why, selling them at 50 cents each would give us $1,680,000 in five years, and that won't be so long to wait for that much."—Harper's Weekly.

The Old Man's Sorrow.

"You have a daughter, have you not, sir?" said a minister to an old gentleman with whom he had formed a casual acquaintance as a fellow passenger.

The old gentleman essayed to answer, but the question had strangely affected him.

"I beg your pardon," said the minister, "if I have thoughtlessly awakened in your mind recollections of a painful nature. The world is full of sorrow, sir, and perhaps my question recalls to your memory a fair, beautiful girl whose blossoming young life had withered in its bloom. Am I right, sir?"

"No, not exactly," replied the old gentleman sadly. "I have five unmarried darters, mister, an' the youngest of the lot is twenty-eight years old."

Merely Preparatory.

"I don't mind telling you," said the pretty girl confidentially, "that I want to take a thorough course in cooking in order to fit myself to be a good wife."

"You are doing the right thing, my dear," said the matron in charge of the cooking school. "May I ask how soon you expect to be married?"

"How should I know?" rejoined the pretty girl, daintily rolling up her sleeves. "I haven't found the man yet."—Chicago Tribune.

Too Bright.

"Didn't you win anything in your suit for damages?"

"No."

"Why didn't you engage a bright lawyer to take your part?"

"I did. He took my all."—Philadelphia Press.

DEATH OF MRS. DENNIS.

Highly Esteemed Lady of Gainesville Passed Away in Jacksonville.

Friends learned with deep regret Thursday evening of the death of Mrs. A. M. Dennis, an estimable and highly esteemed lady of this city, which occurred suddenly at St. Luke's Hospital in Jacksonville late in the afternoon of Thursday. Her daughter, Miss Hattie, had been summoned to Jacksonville on account of her mother's illness. They have recently returned from an extended visit to points in the North, and upon their return home Mrs. Dennis, feeling ill, decided to remain at the hospital in Jacksonville.

The end was a sad and sudden one, and the family has the sympathy of the entire community.

No information can yet be secured regarding the funeral arrangements, etc., but this will be announced later.

Margaret DeRose, aged about sixty, widow of the late Rev. A. DeRose, died suddenly at her home on Monday night of heart disease, being ill only a few moments. The funeral was held from Mt. Pleasant M. E. church and was largely attended, as deceased was quite popular among the colored people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jarvis and son Hardy, left yesterday for points North. Mrs. Jarvis will stop for a couple or three weeks in Waycross, Ga., while Mr. Jarvis and son will proceed to Richmond, Va., where they will be guests of the former's brother, D. A. Jarvis, whom Mr. J. H. Jarvis has not seen for many years. Before returning Mr. Jarvis and son will, of course, visit the Jamestown Exposition.

D. L. Williams of Rocky Hill was in the city yesterday. Mr. Williams, who is supervisor of the Rocky Hill school, states that the school opened Monday with a good enrollment, and with Miss Katie George as principal. Miss George is one of the most efficient of the teachers of the county according to her grade, and is well liked by the patrons and pupils. She will no doubt make a great success at Rocky Hill school as she has the hearty cooperation which is necessary to make a success anywhere.
